

Aphelia Griffin, Accreditation Specialist – Travel Only
Extension, 121

Bachelor of Science for Business Administration from DeVry University

Aphelia Griffin joined the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) on May 8, 2012, as an Accreditation Specialist (Travel Only) in the Accreditation Department. She is from Silver Spring, Maryland. She moved to Atlanta, GA and was employed by Sheltering Arms Child Development and Family Support, a non-profit organization focused on early childhood education, Head Start, and Pre K. Three years later, she found employment at DeVry University as an HR Generalist. During that time, there was a brand new pilot department created named Student Central. She was asked to be one of the first six Student Advocates to set the policies and procedures for this department for the entire corporation. She continued her education with DeVry, earning a Bachelor's of Science for Business Administration with a concentration in Project Management. While employed by DeVry University, she was promoted to Student Success Coach in 2009 and held this position until 2012 when she moved back to Silver Spring, MD and began working for NACCAS.