

Daniel “Dan” Hoare, Records & Barcoding Specialist. Dan holds a Bachelor of Arts in English and a Master of Library and Information Science degree. Dan comes to NACCAS with experience as a Records Management Intern, Campus Librarian, Annotator, Records Analyst and Library Director; Dan has direct experience setting up records systems, designing and implementing document tracking systems, and developing records management system processes and procedures. Dan has worked in the Energy, Academic, For Profit and Public sectors and brings solid problem solving, high sense of urgency, leadership and initiative to NACCAS.