

Eliei Tesone, Research & Analysis Specialist. Eliei holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics & Psychology from The George Washington University (GW). Eliei comes to NACCAS with experience verifying critical data, analyzing grades and interpreting admissions reports, evaluating student demographical information for statistical reasons, presenting to delegates of member nations, leading and organizing case studies, and implementing findings of studies; Eliei has worked in the Academic and Non-Profit industries and brings a pro-active, critical-thinking, organized, and detail-oriented skill-set to NACCAS.