

Ms. Veda V. Teagle – NACCAS Senior Accreditation Specialist
Extension, 125

Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Princess Anne, Maryland

Master of Arts in Administrative Management with a concentration in Public Administration from Bowie State University, Bowie, Maryland

Ms. Teagle has been a Senior Accreditation Specialist for the National Accrediting Commission of Career Arts & Sciences, Inc. (NACCAS) since 2010. She has over 10 years of diverse administrative management experience in varied customer service oriented business settings that span from proprietary education to healthcare administration, including her 4 years as a NACCAS Regional Accreditation Specialist. Being academically qualified with course work in public budgeting, applied research, organizational development and strategy, and human resources management it enables her to excel in her position as Senior Accreditation Specialist.