Dear Interested Party:

The 2014 NACCAS “Policy Call for Comment” is now available on our website at www.naccas.org. As part of the Commission’s on-going effort to strengthen and maintain effective Standards and other accreditation requirements, the Board of Commissioners is proposing certain changes in NACCAS’ Standards and Criteria, Rules of Practice and Procedure and Policies, and is requesting your comments concerning these proposed changes.

This Policy Call for Comment includes changes that were adopted pursuant to emergency procedures set out in Section 10.3 (b) of the Rules, and are already in effect. The effective dates of those changes are noted in the Policy Call for Comment. Regardless of the effective date, the Commission is asking for your comments.

The Board of Commissioners will consider your comments as it finalizes these changes at its August 2014 meeting.

You may respond to the 2014 “Policy Call for Comment” on-line by clicking here. Your response is requested by July 19, 2014.

We appreciate you taking the time to respond to the 2014 “Policy Call for Comment.”

Please Note: On June 3, 2014, NACCAS-accredited institutions were notified of a 2014 Special By-Laws Call for Comment (under which the Commission seeks comments from accredited institutions on certain proposed changes to NACCAS’ By-Laws). The 2014 NACCAS Policy Call for Comment announced above is a separate Call for Comment relating to proposed changes to NACCAS’ Standards and Criteria, Rules of Practice and Procedure and Policies.

Reminder to NACCAS-accredited schools: Your school's email address may be important to NACCAS as a part of the requirement that you are able to receive all official communications relevant to your accreditation. Before you unsubscribe make sure that NACCAS has a valid email address for your school.
