Re: Attached Letter

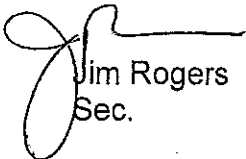

Dear NACCAS,

The school has elected not to appeal the determination because of the amount of paperwork required.

The school submitted REVIEWED Financial Statement instead of Audited for the FY 2014-2015. These were not accepted by NACCAS. The school paid it fees, fines, penalties, etc. but since NACCAS will not accept only an audited set of Financials for the period the school sees no benefit in maintaining accreditation.

The school feels the additional amount of paperwork required is an undue burden with limited NACCAS benefits for a school that does not participate in Federal Financial Aid.

Sincerely,

Jim Rogers
