

NACCAS' 2016 Appeal Review Panel

NACCAS' Appeal Review Panel hears appeals of adverse accreditation decisions (as defined in Section 9.0(a) of NACCAS' Rules of Practice and Procedure) made by NACCAS' Board of Commissioners. The Panel has the authority to grant or deny appeals, or to send a matter back to the Commission for further consideration.

The Appeal Review Panel consists of seven (7) Panelists (none of whom are current Commissioners) serving overlapping three-year terms. The Panel is composed of:

1. Four (4) School Owners/Administrators;
2. One (1) Academic;
3. One (1) Practitioner; and
4. One (1) Representative of the Public.

Each Panelist is required to meet the same qualifications for his/her position as are required for a Commissioner in the same category, as set forth in NACCAS' By-Laws. (For example, a School Owner/Administrator Panelist must meet the qualifications for a School Owner/Administrator Commissioner.) In addition, every Panelist must have attended a NACCAS Accreditation Workshop within the previous three years.

The Appeal Review Panel for 2016, as selected by NACCAS' Board of Commissioners, consists of:
